Board Action Report

Notation No.: 146

Voting Period: Urgent Notation Item: January 10, 2002 – January 18, 2002

Subject: Concept Sciences, Inc. – Case Study

Whereas,

1. The Board is authorized by 42 USC § 7412 (r)(6)(C)(i) to investigate and report to the public in writing the facts, conditions, and circumstances and the cause or probable cause of “any accidental release resulting in a fatality, serious injury or substantial property damages”;
2. The Board directed the Chief Operating Officer to prepare a case study addressing the potential hazards of processing hydroxylamine and incorporating lessons learned from the Concept Sciences accident; and
3. The Board seeks to communicate its findings to the public in order to promote the prevention of any similar occurrence.

Therefore, pursuant to its authority under 42 U.S.C. § 7412 (r)(6)(C)(i) the Board hereby votes to adopt the attached revised CSB draft case study on Concept Sciences, as a final case study.
